

Master Gardeners of Bergen County July 2020 – mid-month update

Bill Kolvek is having a going-out-of-business sale

Bill Kolvek, a long-time friend of the MG of BC, is having a going-out-of-business sale at his nursery in Chestnut Ridge, NY. The address is 16 DeSalvo Court. Call Bill at 845-494-0925 to schedule your visit. Wear a mask and practice social distancing.

Plant sale in Lincoln Park

Relatives of Donna Faustini, Class of 2012, have purchased a farm in Lincoln Park complete with greenhouses. The new owners are offering all three- and five-gallon plants for $10 each, cash only.

Among the offerings are spirea, weigelia, thuja arborvitae, quince, grasses, elderberry, barberry, viburnum, and more. Most are Proven Winners.

Hours are 8 am-4 pm Monday-Saturday during July. The sale will continue in August if plants remain. The address is 246 Beaver Brook Road, Lincoln Park. Park in the back near the greenhouses. Wear a mask and practice social distancing.

No red geraniums for her!

Take a brief tour of Martha Stewart's 153-acre farm in Westchester County from a segment on CBS Sunday Morning July 12. Martha estimates she's planted 14,000 trees on her property. See the pergola! The black raspberries! The German roses! The bees! You have to admire her plantings, even if you're not a Martha Stewart fan.
